In the first inning Waple walked, took second on Becker's error, and came homewhen Ebbert knocked a hot one to center. After this they did not score until the fifth, when Waple again received a free pass, stole second, and came home on Chapell's safe clout,

St. Vincent, although it made several strong bids, was prevented from scoring until the seventh, when Spalding knocked long fly to left, which Gerardi missed Spalding going to second, and, after pur-loining the third sack, loped home when Robinson laced a hard one between sec-
